This agreement is subject to the following terms and conditions:

- The stallion owner or manager reserves the right to reject any mare for breeding that, according to his judgment, is not in good physical condition, or in any way unfit for breeding..
- The stallion owner or managers reserve the right to reject any mare that fails to produce a live foal after trying to get her in foal for two consecutive breeding seasons. The LFG is considered one year return only.
- If the mare fails to produce a live foal (defined as one that stands and nurses without assistance) return privileges are guaranteed for the following season if the stallion is still living. In the event of death, a substitution will be provided upon the owner's consent.
- If either the stallion or mare dies, or otherwise becomes unfit for service before first breeding, then this contract terminates automatically upon notice received by the other party without liability.
- Stallion owner has the authority, when deemed it is necessary, to obtain the services of a veterinarian at owner's expense. We encourage you to allow us to use ultrasound to determine the time of breeding, for on farm mares.
- Payment of board and all applicable fees are due in full upon departure of the mare, either pregnant or not pregnant. Payments due may be made payable to Twin Pine Farm. All vet's charges and expenses incurred in connection with the mare are the sole liability of the mare owner. Service charges may apply according to the 2019 service fees rate sheet, attached to this contract. $150. OF STUD FEE IS REQUIRED AT TIME OF BOOKING, and is considered non-refundable. BALANCE DUE upon live foal.
- Registering the foal resulting of this contract is the owner's responsibility. A signed breeder's certificate as requested by the owner will be furnished when the mare is confirmed pregnant and all expenses have been paid in full.
- Twin Pine Farm-Southern End Equine, their partners, and employees shall not be liable for injury, death, or disability suffered by the mare or its foal from any cause whatsoever, while in custody, and the owner assents to such condition and waives each and every claim for damages resulting from any such injury, death or disability.
- Neither party is responsible for any liabilities arising from inability to perform this contract as a result of an act of God or other acts beyond either party's control.
- BOOKING FEE MUST BE PAID UPON RETURN OF THIS CONTRACT. Please return the completed form, along with your payment. Stallion owner/manager will then sign and return an executed copy.
